Re: Certification of Tax Rates and Levy to the County Fiscal Year 2023

Every year City Council approves tax rates to be levied on properties within the City. This approval was given by Council on 6/21/22 via Resolution 72-2022. The tax budget and Council approval was subsequently submitted to the County Budget Commission. The Budget Commission reviewed our submission and approved the rates submitted.

City Council is now required to accept the tax rates and authorize the levy of those rates on properties within the City. This resolution also certifies the rates to the County Fiscal Officer.

The certification gives the County Fiscal Officer the authority to calculate the amount owed on each property within the City for the tax rates listed in the resolution. The County Fiscal Officer can then bill each property owner the amount calculated.
